

A 509(a)(2) organization is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that qualifies as a public charity rather than a private foundation. Unlike private foundations, which typically rely on a few large donors, 509(a)(2) organizations demonstrate broad public support through a mix of mission-related income and contributions from the public or grants.